

Thank you for your interest in taking the Paleo X Field School for university credit through Emporia State University. When completing the registration form make sure you apply as (1) non-degree-seeking undergraduate (special) students (if you are in college) or (2) non-degree-seeking high school (concurrent) students. because then you won't have to pay the $80 technology fee.

If you have any questions or experience any issues, please contact Gene Cantero (620.341.5465) in the Registrations Office at Emporia State University. The Emporia State University registration form is on the following page.
